CASE IS REVERSED

K. C. COURT OF APPEALS SENT SALOON CASE BACK.

DECIDED FOR LYONS

Lower Court Decisions Sustained in Cases Against Fidelity and Deposit Bonding Company.

The Kansas City court of appeals handed down Tuesday several opinions affecting cases in Nodaway county.

The case of state ex rel. Wm. Heller vs. John Thornhill, presiding judge of the county court et al. was reversed and remanded. This was a case where Heller had mandamused the county court for a saloon license, and when taken up by the circuit court a demurrer was filed by Attorney Ellis G. Cook for the "drys," on the ground that the circuit court had no jurisdiction. The demurrer was sustained by Judge Ellison, throwing the case out of circuit court. An appeal was taken by Heller's attorneys, Cook, Cummins & Dawson, to the Kansas City court of appeals, and they ordered the case sent back here to be tried on its merits.

At that time Heller was seeking a saloon license at the old stand of the Oak. The case will now come up at the February term of court.

Cook, Cummins & Dawson, attorneys for the Bank of Conception of Clyde, this morning received a copy of the decision of the Kansas City court of appeals, in the case of Francis Lyons, plaintiff, vs. the Bank of Conception, wherein Lyons was seeking by writ of mandamus to be restored to the position of a stockholder in the Bank of Conception. The case grew out of the failure of the Clyde bank in April, 1907. At the time the bank failed, a number of the stockholders and creditors of the bank voluntarily contributed $200 per share and paid the same into the treasury of the bank and thereby raised sufficient funds to pay the debts and create a capital stock for the bank. The plaintiff, Lyons, was a stockholder at said time and was under 21 years of age. He did not care to voluntarily contribute to the re-organization of the bank and declined to do so, and also declined to surrender his stock. Whereupon the remaining contributors, by permission of the state banking officers, cancelled the plaintiff's stock and refused to recognize him further as a stockholder. Lyons thereupon brought suit for writ of mandamus to compel the banking officers to recognize him as a stockholder. The case was tried before Judge Ellison some two years ago, and Judge Ellison decided against the plaintiff.

Lyons then appealed to the court of appeals, and the decision of the court is that plaintiff is entitled to be restored as a stockholder, but as between he and the other stockholders who contributed the money to make the bank a going concern, he is not entitled to participate in that fund. The court says.

"Seeking equity he must be willing to do equity, and we will grant him relief only on equitable terms; that is to say, we will restore him to his rights as a stockholder on condition that he renounce to the corporation any interest in the fund derived from the voluntary contributions of the other stockholders."

This decision was written by Judge Johnson and concurred in by Judge Broaddus. Judge James Ellison wrote a dissenting opinion in the cause, holding that the plaintiff was not entitled to recover anything in this proceeding.

It is doubtful, notwithstanding that the case was decided in favor of Lyons upon conditions recited, that his victory is of much value, for the reason that the sole assets of the bank are made up admittedly of the funds contributed by the stockholders, which, under the terms of the decision, the plaintiff cannot participate in.

The decisions of the circuit court here were sustained in the cases of the Pittsburg Plate Glass Co. vs. Fidelity and Deposit Co., and Renshaw vs. Fidelity Deposit Co. These cases were tried in circuit court some time ago and judgment was given to the plaintiffs and against the Fidelity Bonding company, which was surety for Marshall & Co., the Normal contractor firm. The firm failed and suit was brought at once to recover from the bonding house.

WAS A GOOD MEETING.

Watch Services at First M. E. Church Well Attended by a Large Crowd From All Churches.

About one hundred and fifty people remained until the last service at the First M. E. church Tuesday night to watch the old year out and the new year in.

The auditorium was well filled to hear the musical program from 8:30 to 9:30 o'clock, when an hour was spent in the church parlors in a social way. Coffee and sandwiches were served by the ladies of the various churches.

A choir composed of Mrs. F. P. Robinson, Miss Marie Jones, Mrs J. D. Richey, Miss Vernie Felter, Miss Nelle Wray, Rev. Gilbert S. Cox, Messrs. Lona Perrin, Orlo Quinn, H. J. Becker, W. H. Crawford, W. A. Rickenbrode and W. H. Charlton, with Miss Lucile Airy as accompanist, gave a splendid program of solos, duets, quartets, choruses and anthems, and Miss Edith Wilson gave a violin number.

The solo, "It is Enough," from Mendelssohn's "Elijah," was given by Rev. Cox. Although it was a religious service, the singer was enthusiastically applauded.

Miss Marie Jones sang "The Lord is My Light," by Allitson, and Rev. Cox and Mrs. Robinson sang a duet, "The Lord is My Shepherd," by Bartlett. The quartet numbers were "Rhine Raft Song" and "Joys of Spring."

Much interest was taken in the discussion by the ministers at the last meeting on "The Progress of Christianity."

The program consisted of old-time songs, such as "Suwanee River," etc., select readings and recitations from negro poets, addresses on slavery, the negro, etc. Able talks were made by Rev. Carter, Rev. Mitchell, H. T. Bolden, A. Allen, Tom Holmes and George Palmer. The opening address was delivered by A. A. Keene, who commended the good qualities of the negroes of this city and urged them on to better citizenship and loyalty. The program was interesting, inspiring and uplifting.

CUPID WAS BEHIND

DID NOT FARE AS WELL THIS YEAR AS IN 1910 AND 1911.

WAS LEAP YEAR, TOO

In 1912 There Were 255 Marriage Licenses; in 1911, 257, and in 1910, 268 Licenses.

Cupid did not fare as well in Nodaway county during the year 1912 as it did in 1911 and also 1910, according to the records of marriage licenses kept by Recorder Wray. The year 1910 was the banner matrimonial year of the county.

In 1910 there were 268 marriage licenses issued, in 1911 there were 258, and in 1912 there were 262. December was the biggest month in 1910, November in 1911 and December in 1912. Forty-four licenses were issued during the past December, which is the largest number ever issued in any one month, so far as known. The nearest approach to this number was in December, 1910, when 38 licenses were issued.

The fact that 1912 was leap year had no perceptible effect on the licenses.

The record by months for the past three years is as follows:

	1910.	1911.	1912
January	26	24	16

FUNERAL HELD TODAY.

A Tribute to Memory of Mrs. George C. Trusty From Her Neighbors and Friends.

The funeral services for Mrs. Dr. Trusty, who died at her home in Burlington Junction New Year's eve, were held at the family home Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and were conducted by the Rev. Lane Douglas of Carrollton, Mo., an old friend and former pastor of the Trusty family.

A tribute to the memory of Mrs. George C. Trusty from her neighbors and friends of Burlington Junction:

Friends of the Trusty and Wallace families have heard with a great deal of sympathetic feeling of the death of Mrs. Dr. Trusty, which occurred on the evening of December 31, at their home, in Burlington Junction. The possession of many friends and the beautiful home life they lived with their three children had so conspired that Mr. and Mrs. Trusty were in the midst of a happy and useful life when a dread disease fastened its clutches on Mrs. Trusty, preying on her body and mind.

After months of suffering and consultation with the best of physicians, her family and friends believed her condition to be much improved and hoped for her recovery, but in an hour of depression of mind death came with its grim interruption. The husband and wife had known each other from youth. Their inclinations and congeniality of purpose in life made their marriage one of exceptional felicity.

Mrs. Trusty was the child of Christian parents and was early taught the value of truth and purity, and the nobility of her womanhood was proof that she never forgot the teachings of her early life. Fidelity to duty marked all her conduct, making her a kind and loving mother and a wife whose devotion to her husband was unmeasured. All hearts go out in sympathy to the husband who was so soon bereft; to the young children left motherless; to the brothers and sisters whose hearts are aching, and to the host of friends who mourn her untimely death.

When death comes it is always unwelcome, whether it comes as an interruption of joy and gladness, or is a signal of some sorrow to cease, and possibly each afflicted family thinks its affliction the worst, but the death of Mrs. Trusty seems particularly sad. Her life was yet young, her friends and loved ones so many.

REPUBLICAN HORN STILLED.

Committee Quits Sending Its "Canned" Editorials to Papers.

Lack of funds and general demoralization has caused the Republican state committee to cease sending out its "canned" editorial stuff, which country Republican papers have been full of for three years.

The "grapevine" telegraphic service has been discontinued and the country Republicans will no longer read of the "glorious deeds" of Governor Hadley and his cabinet as they swept across the state in automobiles discovering new roads and raising the dust on old ones.

The "service" was under a Jefferson City headline, but the spicy "items" were sent out from the brain factory which was in charge of Ben Deering. What the country Republican press will now do for political "information" no one has yet announced.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The girls of the Hum Drum club are having some good times during the holidays. They spent New Year's evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Wilfley, which had been converted into an Egyptian palace by decorative art. The hostesses were Miss Marjory Wilfley, Miss Geneva Wilfley, Miss Dale Hoffman and Miss Glen Hotchkiss, who were as bewitching as Egyptian princesses in their costumes. All the other club members were in Oriental costume and were as pretty as could be. There was music all evening on the Wilfley victrola and a chafing dish luncheon was prepared by the hostesses, who were assisted in entertaining and serving by Miss Virginia Robinson and Chilton Robinson.

Hoshor-Wood Wedding.

A pretty wedding took place New Year's day at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hoshor, eight and one-half miles south of Maryville, when their daughter, Miss Mona Dell Hoshor, was united in marriage to Warner LeRoy Wood of Bolckow. The ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Marston DeWitt of the M. E. church, South, at Barnard. The wedding music was played by Miss Gertrude Icke of Barnard. The halls and rooms of the home were more than beautiful for the affair. Holly was used exclusively in the halls, and smilax and white hyacinths in the parlors. The bride and groom stood before a screen of smilax during the ceremony. The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of white silk shadow lace over white satin messaline, trimmed with chiffon pleatings. A long white bridal veil of tulle enveloped her and was held in place by small clusters of stevia and fern. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses, white hyacinths and ferns. The bridegroom wore a suit of dark blue. After the ceremony the bride's mother and sister, assisted by Mrs. E. R. Gregory of Savannah, served a three-course wedding dinner. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hoshor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hoshor, Mr. and Mrs. E. Wood and family of Bolckow, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Gregory and family of Savannah, Mr. J. F. Davis, Misses Bessie and Myrtle Wade of Bolckow, Fred and Miss Lola Fritchman of Savannah, Miss Ruby Westcott of Fillmore, Mrs. Frank Garrison and family, Miss Gertrude Icke of Barnard, Mr. Warren Phelps of Maryville, and Mrs. Eva Burris of Lincoln, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood will be at home on the Wood farm, near Bolckow, by the first of March. They are well known in Maryville, and were among the most popular students at the State Normal, where both were graduated. A host of friends will extend to them congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy and prosperous life.

An infair dinner and reception was given in honor of Mr. Wood and his bride Thursday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Wood.

Entertained Husbands and Families.

The Embroidery Art club at Parnell entertained its husbands and families New Year's eve at the Parnell hall. The club is 2 years old, and this was the first time they had given an entertainment of this kind. The club has seventeen members, and with the husbands and families and a few friends that gathered New Year's eve there was quite a large company. Somerset was played until a late hour and luncheon was served just before the new year came in. The guests besides the members of the club families were George Felton and family of Kansas City, Messrs. Joe and Junan Cotter and Miss Mary Cotter of Kansas City, and Ed Jones and family of Parnell. The members of the club are Mrs. Fred Breit, Mrs. Everett Bailey, Mrs. Dr. F. M. Byrd, Mrs. Dr. Edward Egbert Crowson, Mrs. Charles C. Evans, Mrs. Otis Gray, Mrs. Frank Hall, Mrs. Horace Jones, Mrs. Ben Jones, Mrs. Elias Klaas, Mrs. Noble Klaas, Mrs. Theodore Logan, Mrs. W. N. Morgan, Mrs. F. P. Moody, Mrs. John O'Day, Mrs. Charles Roof and Miss Ruby Simmons.

In Honor of College Students.

Dr. and Mrs. K. C. Cummins entertained company at a turkey dinner Thursday, complimentary to their son, Mr. Eugene Cummins, who is home for the holidays from St. Benedict's college at Atchison, Kan., and also for their nephew, Mr. Frank Cummins, who is a student at the same school. The guests were Eugene Cummins, Francis Cummins, Miss Lucile Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lynch, Miss Nelle Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Cummins, Messrs. Andy Chris and Frank Cummins and Miss Marguerite Cummins.

Wednesday Evening Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wolfers, Jr., Miss Mildred Clare Wolfers and Mr. Maurice Wolfers of Hopkins were 6 o'clock dinner guests Wednesday evening of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. VanSteenbergh and Mr. and Mrs. Harold VanSteenbergh. Miss Wolfers will leave soon for school at Jacksonville, Ill., and Mr. Maurice will return to the state university of Missouri.

LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL, GLOSSY HAIR, NO DANDRUFF--25 CENT "DANDERINE"

HAIR COMING OUT?—IF DRY, BRITTLE, THIN OR YOUR SCALP ITCHES AND IS FULL OF DANDRUFF—USE "DANDERINE.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of Dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Advertisement.

AXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE--"CASCARETS"

hat Glasses Are to Weak Eyes, Cascarets Are to Weak Bowels—a 10-Cent Box Will Truly Amaze You.

Most old people must give to the owels some regular help, else they uffer from constipation. The condiion is perfectly natural. It is just s natural as it is for old people to alk slowly. For age is never so ctive as youth. The muscles are less lastic. And the bowels are muscles. So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak yes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep—Advertisement.

Miss Jessie Briggs went to Barnard Thursday morning to visit W. F. Briggs and family.

A good stallion will be sold at Hosmer's monthly stock sale Saturday, January 4th.

LABOR LEADERS IN PENITENTIARY

Dynamite Special Reaches Federal Prison at Leavenworth.

PRISONERS ARE REGISTERED.

Each Is Given Haircut and Suit of Prison Uniform—Iron Workers Probably Will Be Given Construction Work—Ryan Is Near Collapse.

Leavenworth, Kan., Jan. 2.—The thirty-three labor union officials sentenced at Indianapolis for complicity n the McNamara dynamite plots arrived at the federal prison here. They immediately were photographed, dressed in penitentiary clothes and formally enrolled as convicts.

As Frank M. Ryan, president of the iron workers' international union, who was sentenced to seven years; Olaf A. Tveitmoe, the Pacific coast labor leader; Herbert S. Hockin, John T. Butler and the others who had received sentences varying from six years to one year and one day stepped from the special train which brought them from Indianapolis they were taken in charge by the prison authorities, and began in the federal penitentiary here punishments for their connection with crimes for which the McNamara brothers, confessed dynamiters, are serving terms in the state penitentiary at San Quentin, Cal.

Rushed from the scene of the historic trial at Indianapolis in a special train, which was barricaded and under guard, the prisoners were taken by rail directly into the prison grounds. Their first view of the interior was from the windows of the train.

Haircut and Uniform.

Within an hour after the arrival, each prisoner had been subjected to a haircut and had been garbed in the prison uniform. Most of the new prisoners are iron workers, and it is understood the warden is to put them on construction of buildings.

Tveitmoe, who is secretary of the California building trades council, is the only one of the convicted men not affiliated with the iron workers' union, and it is expected he will be given clerical work. Ryan, president of the iron workers' union, may be given similar work because of his age and his apparent collapsed condition.

It was a memorable trip which brought the prisoners over the 570 miles from Indianapolis. United States Marshal Schmidt, in charge of the prisoners, decided not to reach Leavenworth before daylight, so that almost twenty hours were passed in the train.

Train Closely Guarded.

The train was guarded at windows and doors as a rolling adjunct of the penitentiary, all curtains being drawn and no one being permitted to give out at the railway stations any word as to the happenings within. The trip across Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and into Kansas was to have been kept secret, but at every station crowds greeted the train as "the dynamiters' special," and cheers and singing at midnight showed the disposition of the prisoners toward a New Year, which for them was to begin with imprisonment. While passing Jefferson City, Mo., Marshal Schmidt passed around coffee, which was drank from tin cups. Each prisoner was permitted at that time to write out New Year's messages to members of their families.

Beyond that outburst of cheers, it was a long monotonous ride for the convicted men, each of whom was required to sit throughout the night face to face with an armed guard.

Higgins Collapses.

Frank J. Higgins of Boston, former New England organizer for the iron workers' union, became unconscious on the train and was placed in a physician's care. He is sentenced to serve two years.

When the prisoners were registered it was found that Ryan, aged fifty-eight years, was the oldest, and Fred Sherman, aged twenty-eight, is the youngest. Ryan is the only prisoner sentenced to a term as long as seven years, while Sherman is sentenced to two years.

Charles Wachtmeister of Detroit, with eight children, has the largest family. He is sentenced to two years.

For more than an hour there was enacted a scene in the office of Deputy Warden Mackey, where one by one the prisoners were relieved of their pocket possessions. These were little trinkets, matches, pocketbooks, pipes, handkerchiefs and photographs of wives, mothers and other relatives.

Two Men Burn to Death.

Aberdeen, S. D., Jan. 2.—Fire at Bowman, N. D., destroyed the Sterling hotel, a barber shop and restaurant, causing loss estimated at $40,000. Merritt McPhea of Bowman and Will Connelly of Ypsilanti, Mich., were killed in the hotel fire. Connelly's brother, Tom, tried to save him and was seriously injured.

Charged With Horse Stealing.

Pierre, S. D., Jan. 2.—J. C. Barker was bound over here on a charge of horse rustling. Barker is charged with taking horses from Frank Kolish and Frank Connery. A neighbor of Kolish is looking for a dozen head of horses which disappeared in the same way as the Kolish horses.

CRAIG AND RAGSDALE ADMITTED TO BAIL

On Advice of Prosecutor, but Woman's Club Will Push Case.

Indianapolis, Jan. 2.—Dr. William Craig, veterinarian, and Alonzo M. Ragsdale, undertaker, indicted for the murder of Dr. Helen Knabe, were released under heavy bonds, an unusual procedure in a first degree murder charge, because Prosecutor Baker told the court he knew what the evidence was and urged their admission to bail.

While the prosecuting authorities are thus disposed to favor the indicted pair, the club women of the city, who paid for the investigation that turned up damaging evidence, are determined to press the case against Dr. Craig and Ragsdale.

The sensation their arrest caused fully equaled the popular sensation created Oct. 24, 1911, by the finding of Dr. Knabe's nude body in her apartments, her head nearly severed from a gaping wound in the neck, made by a surgeon's knife.

FAIL TO GET ROCKEFELLER

House May Be Asked to Issue Attachment for Oil Magnate.

New York, Jan. 2.—After an all-night watch by forty-eight deputy sergeant-at-arms at the Tarrytown and Fifth avenue homes of William Rockefeller, it was declared that a federal report would be made to congress that Mr. Rockefeller was deliberately evading the process servers who seek to subpoena him before the Pujo committee at Washington, which is investigating the "money trust."

It is forty-four days since the subpoena for Mr. Rockefeller was issued.

Charles F. Riddell, sergeant-at arms of the house of representatives, said that as soon as he could get into communication with Chairman Pujo he would submit evidence that Mr. Rockefeller was deliberately evading service. If the house were convinced by the evidence it would be within its power to issue an attachment, enabling Sergeant-at-Arms Riddell to break into the Rockefeller home to find him.

EIGHT MEN KILLED IN WRECK

Train Goes Through Bridge Near Huntington, W. Va.

Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 2.—Eight men were killed and fifteen injured when a freight train on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad went through a bridge over the Guayandotte river, three miles from here.

The known dead: Engineer E. S. Webber, Emmett Wood, Charles Maddy, John O'Connor.

A crew of thirty or more iron workers were employed in repairing the bridge when the freight train appeared on the main track. Some of them believing the structure to have been weakened, left their posts, but others laughed at danger and were carried down with the wreckage when the bridge collapsed under the weight of the train.

LUTHER M'CARTY DEFEATS PALZER

Nebraska Man Conquers Iowan in Eighteen Rounds.

LANDED BLOWS AT WILL

Man Who Conquered Jim Flynn Three Weeks Ago Clinches Title to White Heavyweight Championship—Loser Game Under Punishment.

Los Angeles, Jan. 2.—Luther McCarty, the Nebraska cowboy, shattered the heavyweight championship ambition of Al Palzer, the Iowa giant, at the Vernon arena. For nearly eighteen rounds he used the huge frame of the Iowan as a punching box.

When the middle of the eighteenth round found Palzer staggering blindly about under a volley of lefts to his battered face and when Referee Charles Eyton walked between them and hoisted the right hand of the smiling cowboy pugilist, the decision was received with cheers.

McCarty's victory, following his decisive defeat three weeks ago of Jim Flynn, places him at the top of white heavyweights.

McCarty has announced and reiterated the statement that he would never fight a negro.

Palzer, in spite of his superior height, weight and reach, was no match for the cool-headed, agile youngster. He literally stumbled through the fight, assimilating awful punishment, and his rushes were wholly ineffective. He scarcely landed a clean blow throughout the fight.

Palzer began the fight with an aggressiveness that indicated a desire to finish his man in short order, but McCarty had little difficulty in eluding him.

Only once Palzer appeared to have an advantage. In one of the early rounds McCarty slipped to the mat. Palzer rushed in, launching a right uppercut to catch the rising man, but McCarty ducked out of danger.

Nebraskan Clever Fighter.

McCarty fought cleverly throughout, taking his time and beating down his man systematically. He seldom wasted a blow and hit with deadly precision. Palzer had practically no defense against the Nebraskan's whiplike left, delivered straight from the shoulder, and seldom was he able to block the right swing or uppercut, which invariably followed a series of straight lefts.

McCarty landed at will and with an accuracy that became monotonous.

Palzer's eyes were kept almost continually on his manager, the veteran Tom O'Rourke, who shouted instructions to him through a megaphone. He appeared to have no initiative whatever. O'Rourke's instructions were as audible to McCarty as to Palzer and every move of the Iowan was anticipated by his foe.

Palzer's face was badly disfigured and he showed the effects of his beating even more than did McCarty's last victim, the veteran Flynn.

In the eighteenth round Palzer walked unsteadily to the center of the ring and literally fell into a left hook that dazed him. He clung to McCarty's shoulders and when they separated, McCarty shot two lefts to the jaw. McCarty, apparently unwilling to administer the finishing punch, backed away and the referee stopped the fight.

McCarty's only mark was a slight cut under the right eye.

Ferns Gets Decision Over Brewer.

Kansas City, Jan. 2.—Clarence ("Wildcat") Ferns of Kansas City, claimant of the welterweight championship of the world, was awarded the decision over Harry Brewer of Kansas City after ten rounds of furious fighting here.

Kilbane Beats Kirk.

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion of the world, rendered Ollie Kirk helpless in less than two rounds, and Referee Harry Sharp stopped the fight, giving the decision to Kilbane.

SULZER PLEDGES REFORMS

New Governor of New York Walks to Inauguration.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 2.—William Sulzer was inaugurated forty-second governor of New York. He cut out all the usual display. His only concession was an address from the capitol steps to thousands who could not get into the big building.

With the declaration that he was free from ulterior influences and determined to serve the will of the people, Governor Sulzer practically served notice on Tammany Hall that he is not its figurehead.

Soon after 11 o'clock, Governor elect Sulzer and Governor Dix left the executive mansion with their staffs and walked to the capitol.

The marching suffragettes, headed by "General" Rosalie Jones, clapped their hands enthusiastically, and shouted "Hurrah for our governor."

Governor Sulzer's address pledged him to carry out reforms demanded by the people.

Agreement Made for Loan.

Peking, Jan. 2.—A preliminary agreement was arranged settling the details of the proposed six-power loan of $125,000,000 to China.

REVENUE RECEIPTS INCREASE.

Working Balance of Treasury, Which Is Actual Cash in Uncle Sam's Pocketbook, Amounts to Eighty-eight Million Dollars.

Washington, Jan. 1.—Uncle Sam closed his accounts for the year 1912 with plenty of money in his pockets and a balance sheet of receipts and expenditures that bespoke the prosperity of the nation.

For the first half of the current fiscal year ending yesterday disbursements exceeded receipts by between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000, according to estimates of treasury officials. The deficit a year ago was over $21,397,000.

This improvement over last year is due to the remarkable increase in customs and internal revenue receipts during the last six months. Receipts from all sources from July to December were $353,000,000, or more than $23,000,000 greater than during the corresponding period of 1911.

The aggregate expenditures for the six months were about $356,000,000. This was nearly $5,000,000 greater than the same period last year, the increase being due mainly to large expenditures for the army and the increased pension payments as a result of the pension legislation of the last congress.

The general fund of the government contained upwards of $140,000,000, while a year ago it held only $126,926,000. The working balance of the treasury, which is the actual cash in Uncle Sam's pocketbook, amounts to about $88,000,000. The year 1911 closed with a working balance of $71,475,000.

The treasury holds about $1,153,665,000 in gold. This includes $150,000,000 in the reserve fund, the greater part of the remainder being represented by gold certificates in circulation.

YEAR IN WALL STREET

New York Banks in Better Condition Than Any Time Since 1907.

New York, Jan. 1.—The year 1912 in the financial district was far from satisfactory. In the stock market lower prices and restricted business were the most adverse features. Of the various commodity markets the cotton exchange almost alone had an active and profitable year.

The dullness in the stock market found partial reflection in the operations of local banks and trust companies, but all these institutions are believed to be in better condition than at any time since the end of 1907, and many have added handsomely to their resources and surplus accounts.

STEEL TRUST BRANCHING OUT

Will Build Plant in Canada at Cost of $20,000,000.

New York, Jan. 1.—The United States Steel corporation is to extend the sphere of its manufacturing operations into Canada. In a statement Chairman Elbert H. Gary said:

"We have decided to establish a manufacturing plant at the site which we secured some years ago at Sandwich, Can., just opposite Detroit. In the comparatively near future we shall begin the construction of some blast furnaces and mills. We shall probably build a wire mill, rail mill, structural mill, bar mill and perhaps some other mills. I suppose the first cost will be in the neighborhood of $20,000,000."

DICKINSON IS DEPOSED

M. J. Knelly Appointed General Manager of Orient Railroad.

SUPT. MERTSCHEIMER RESIGNS

Disagreement Among Eleven Receivers in Charge of Company Brings About Shakeup—Dickinson Retains Place of Vice President.

Kansas City, Jan. 1.—Edward Dickinson has been deposed as general manager of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railway and M. J. Knelly, formerly a division superintendent for the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad, named in his place, according to an announcement from the railway headquarters here. The resignation of Frederick Mertscheimer as superintendent of motive power also was announced.

Disagreement among the various receivers who have had the railway company in charge for several months is said to have brought about the shakeup. Counting the receivers appointed for the subsidiary companies and those named in different states, eleven receivers have charge of the Orient company's affairs. There are three for Kansas and Oklahoma, two for Texas, two for Mexico, one each for the Kansas City Outer Belt Railway company and the Townsite company, two for the International and Union Construction company, the last named concerns being subsidiaries of the Orient.

It was stated that Mr. Dickinson retains the place of vice president, but has merely a "thinking part" in the affairs of the road.

CARDUI WORKED LIKE A CHARM

After Operation Failed to Help, Cardui Worked Like a Charm.

Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from this place, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet. The doctor said I would never be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer.

I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die.

At last I tried Cardui, and began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains.

Cardui worked like a charm."

There must be merit in this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women—Cardui—for it has been in successful use for more than 50 years, for the treatment of womanly weakness and disease.

Please try it, for your troubles.

THREE CHILDREN BURNED IN HOME

Mother Was Shopping and Father Found Doors Locked.

BUCKET BRIGADE POWERLESS.

Gray Summit, Mo., Jan. 2.—The three children of Mr. and Mrs. George Meyer burned to death in their home here. The children, whose ages were three years, two years and nine months, were alone in the house. Mrs. Meyer was shopping.

The father was working in a sand mill thirty feet from the house, but when he and other workmen, attracted by smoke, reached the house, they found the doors locked. The house was enveloped in flames before they could enter. A bucket brigade was powerless to check the flames. The oldest and youngest children were girls.

Gray Summit is in Franklin county, the first county west of St. Louis.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

Water Wagon Jolts Off All but Four in Each 100.

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—Only four of every 100 persons who have run up the "Never Again" sign will keep it floating till next New Year's.

Such is the opinion of St. Louis liquor venders in a canvass downtown.

"It's the same crowd tha. swears off year after year," said Frank J. Moore. "We all look for business to drop, perhaps more than 50 per cent, the day or two after New Year's. Then the tumbles off the water wagon begin and the receipts gain daily until Jan. 15, when they are back where they were before.

"Beer drinkers hardly ever swear off drinking, but if they do they are more likely to keep their resolution than the 'booze fighters.'"

"If 100 men took a vow never to take another drink, I would not bank on more than five of them being able to say honestly that they had kept it a year hence," said Jacob Rose. "Seventy-five per cent of them would fall off the wagon the first week."

CANDY IS NOT POISONED

Force of St. Louis City Chemist's Office Had a Scare.

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—For twenty-four hours the entire force of the city chemist's office here suffered in fear they had been poisoned. All were given antidotes and physicians constantly were nearby. The comedy, or near tragedy, was revealed by the report of the chemist, Daudt, that there was no poison in a huge box of candy sent by Claude Lancaster of Newport Ky., to his divorced wife, Lilly Williams.

The candy was taken to the chemist's office by the police after Cora Pears, Mrs. Williams' sister, became very ill immediately after eating some of the candy. Stenographers and clerks believed it was a belated Christmas gift and ate most of the sweets. Finally Daudt entered.

"Hum," he said, "anyone who ate that much candy ought to die whether it was poisoned or not," as he opened the box.

The effect was startling. It required twenty hours to show the candy was pure.

Judge Amick was apointed to succeed Judge Easton, who resigned with more than four years of his term unexpired. He contended his appointment carried him in office until the expiration of the time for which Judge Easton was elected. Meantime, Charles F. Mayor, a Democrat, was elected last November. Judge Amick refused to surrender the office and Mayor sought to oust him.

Long Sentence for Missouri Blacksmith Who Killed Rival.

The jury in the case was out all night. Dickens and his victim were rival blacksmiths and the murder was the result of a quarrel over their respective achievements at their trade.

Girl Baby Arrives With New Year.

Kansas City, Jan. 2.—Kansas City's first New Year's baby is Madeline Bridges. She arrived at the home of John L. Bridges, a creamery man, just as the first blasts of the whistles sounded from the packing houses and with the first boom of the cannon of battery B. As her tiny voice mingled with the welcoming din, the hands of the clock pointed to 12:01.

Boy Is Killed for a Rabbit.

Overly, N. D., Jan. 2.—Elmer Johnson, aged eighteen, thought the top of Henry Schoonover's head was a rabbit. The bullet from Johnson's gun struck Schoonover, aged twelve, in the temple, killing him instantly.

CASE IS REVERSED

K. C. COURT OF APPEALS SENT SALOON CASE BACK.

DECIDED FOR LYONS

Lower Court Decisions Sustained in Cases Against Fidelity and Deposit Bonding Company.

The Kansas City court of appeals handed down Tuesday several opinions affecting cases in Nodaway county.

The case of state ex rel. Wm. Heller vs. John Thornhill, presiding judge of the county court et al. was reversed and remanded. This was a case where Heller had mandamused the county court for a saloon license, and when taken up by the circuit court a demurrer was filed by Attorney Ellis G. Cook for the "drys," on the ground that the circuit court had no jurisdiction. The demurrer was sustained by Judge Ellison, throwing the case out of circuit court. An appeal was taken by Heller's attorneys, Cook, Cummins & Dawson, to the Kansas City court of appeals, and they ordered the case sent back here to be tried on its merits.

At that time Heller was seeking a saloon license at the old stand of the Oak. The case will now come up at the February term of court.

Cook, Cummins & Dawson, attorneys for the Bank of Conception of Clyde, this morning received a copy of the decision of the Kansas City court of appeals, in the case of Francis Lyons, plaintiff, vs. the Bank of Conception, wherein Lyons was seeking by writ of mandamus to be restored to the position of a stockholder in the Bank of Conception. The case grew out of the failure of the Clyde bank in April, 1907. At the time the bank failed, a number of the stockholders and creditors of the bank voluntarily contributed $200 per share and paid the same into the treasury of the bank and thereby raised sufficient funds to pay the debts and create a capital stock for the bank. The plaintiff, Lyons, was a stockholder at said time and was under 21 years of age. He did not care to voluntarily contribute to the re-organization of the bank and declined to do so, and also declined to surrender his stock. Whereupon the remaining contributors, by permission of the state banking officers, cancelled the plaintiff's stock and refused to recognize him further as a stockholder. Lyons thereupon brought suit for writ of mandamus to compel the banking officers to recognize him as a stockholder. The case was tried before Judge Ellison some two years ago, and Judge Ellison decided against the plaintiff.

Lyons then appealed to the court of appeals, and the decision of the court is that plaintiff is entitled to be restored as a stockholder, but as between he and the other stockholders who contributed the money to make the bank a going concern, he is not entitled to participate in that fund. The court says.

"Seeking equity he must be willing to do equity, and we will grant him relief only on equitable terms; that is to say, we will restore him to his rights as a stockholder on condition that he renounce to the corporation any interest in the fund derived from the voluntary contributions of the other stockholders."

This decision was written by Judge Johnson and concurred in by Judge Broaddus. Judge James Ellison wrote a dissenting opinion in the cause, holding that the plaintiff was not entitled to recover anything in this proceeding.

It is doubtful, notwithstanding that the case was decided in favor of Lyons upon conditions recited, that his victory is of much value, for the reason that the sole assets of the bank are made up admittedly of the funds contributed by the stockholders, which, under the terms of the decision, the plaintiff cannot participate in.

The decisions of the circuit court here were sustained in the cases of the Pittsburg Plate Glass Co. vs. Fidelity and Deposit Co., and Renshaw vs. Fidelity Deposit Co. These cases were tried in circuit court some time ago and judgment was given to the plaintiffs and against the Fidelity Bonding company, which was surety for Marshall & Co., the Normal contractor firm. The firm failed and suit was brought at once to recover from the bonding house.

WAS A GOOD MEETING.

Watch Services at First M. E. Church Well Attended by a Large Crowd From All Churches.

About one hundred and fifty people remained until the last service at the First M. E. church Tuesday night to watch the old year out and the new year in.

The auditorium was well filled to hear the musical program from 8:30 to 9:30 o'clock, when an hour was spent in the church parlors in a social way. Coffee and sandwiches were served by the ladies of the various churches.

A choir composed of Mrs. F. P. Robinson, Miss Marie Jones, Mrs. J. D. Richey, Miss Vernie Felter, Miss Nelle Wray, Rev. Gilbert S. Cox, Messrs. Lona Perrin, Orlo Quinn, H. J. Becker, W. H. Crawford, W. A. Rickenbrode and W. H. Charlton, with Miss Lucile Airy as accompanist, gave a splendid program of solos, duets, quartets, choruses and anthems, and Miss Edith Wilson gave a violin number.

The solo, "It is Enough," from Mendelssohn's "Elijah," was given by Rev. Cox. Although it was a religious service, the singer was enthusiastically applauded.

Miss Marie Jones sang "The Lord is My Light," by Allitson, and Rev. Cox and Mrs. Robinson sang a duet, "The Lord is My Shepherd," by Bartlett. The quartet numbers were "Rhine Raft Song" and "Joys of Spring."

Much interest was taken in the discussion by the ministers at the last meeting on "The Progress of Christianity."

CUPID WAS BEHIND PACKAGE NO. ONE

DID NOT FARE AS WELL THIS YEAR AS IN 1910 AND 1911.

WAS LEAP YEAR, TOO

In 1912 There Were 255 Marriage Licenses; in 1911, 257, and in 1910, 268 Licenses.

Cupid did not fare as well in Nodaway county during the year 1912 as it did in 1911 and also 1910, according to the records of marriage licenses kept by Recorder Wray. The year 1910 was the banner matrimonial year of the county.

In 1910 there were 288 marriage licenses issued, in 1911 there were 258, and in 1912 there were 262. December was the biggest month in 1910, November in 1911 and December in 1912. Forty-four licenses were issued during the past December, which is the largest number ever issued in any one month, so far as known. The nearest approach to this number was in December, 1910, when 38 licenses were issued.

The fact that 1912 was leap year had no perceptible effect on the licenses.

The record by months for the past three years is as follows:

FUNERAL HELD TODAY.

A Tribute to Memory of Mrs. George C. Trusty From Her Neighbors and Friends.

The funeral services for Mrs. Dr. Trusty, who died at her home in Burlington Junction New Year's eve, were held at the family home Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and were conducted by the Rev. Lane Douglas of Carrollton, Mo., an old friend and former pastor of the Trusty family.

A tribute to the memory of Mrs. George C. Trusty from her neighbors and friends of Burlington Junction:

Friends of the Trusty and Wallace families have heard with a great deal of sympathetic feeling of the death of Mrs. Dr. Trusty, which occurred on the evening of December 31, at their home, in Burlington Junction. The possession of many friends and the beautiful home life they lived with their three children had so conspired that Mr. and Mrs. Trusty were in the midst of a happy and useful life when a dread disease fastened its clutches on Mrs. Trusty, preying on her body and mind.

After months of suffering and consultation with the best of physicians, her family and friends believed her condition to be much improved and hoped for her recovery, but in an hour of depression of mind death came with its grim interruption. The husband and wife had known each other from youth. Their inclinations and congeniality of purpose in life made their marriage one of exceptional felicity.

Mrs. Trusty was the child of Christian parents and was early taught the value of truth and purity, and the nobility of her womanhood was proof that she never forgot the teachings of her early life. Fidelity to duty marked all her conduct, making her a kind and loving mother and a wife whose devotion to her husband was unmeasured. All hearts go out in sympathy to the husband who was so soon bereft; to the young children left motherless; to the brothers and sisters whose hearts are aching, and to the host of friends who mourn her untimely death.

When death comes it is always unwelcome, whether it comes as an interruption of joy and gladness, or is a signal of some sorrow to cease, and possibly each afflicted family thinks its affliction the worst, but the death of Mrs. Trusty seems particularly sad. Her life was yet young, her friends and loved ones so many.

REPUBLICAN HORN STILLED.

Committee Quits Sending Its "Canned" Editorials to Papers.

Lack of funds and general demoralization has caused the Republican state committee to cease sending out its "canned" editorial stuff, which country Republican papers have been full of for three years.

The "grapevine" telegraphic service has been discontinued and the country Republicans will no longer read of the "glorious deeds" of Governor Hadley and his cabinet as they swept across the state in automobiles discovering new roads and raising the dust on old ones.

The "service" was under a Jefferson City headline, but the spicy "items" were sent out from the brain factory which was in charge of Ben Deering. What the country Republican press will now do for political "information" no one has yet announced.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

AXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE--"CASCARETS"

hat Glasses Are to Weak Eyes, Cascarets Are to Weak Bowels—a 10-Cent Box Will Truly Amaze You.

Most old people must give to the owels some regular help, else they uffer from constipation. The condiion is perfectly natural. It is just s natural as it is for old people to alk slowly. For age is never so ctive as youth. The muscles are less lastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak yes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep—Advertisement.

Dynamite Special Reaches Federal Prison at Leavenworth.

PRISONERS ARE REGISTERED.

Each Is Given Haircut and Suit of Prison Uniform—Iron Workers Probably Will Be Given Construction Work—Ryan Is Near Collapse.

Leavenworth, Kan., Jan. 2.—The thirty-three labor union officials sentenced at Indianapolis for complicity in the McNamara dynamite plots arrived at the federal prison here. They immediately were photographed, dressed in penitentiary clothes and formally enrolled as convicts.

As Frank M. Ryan, president of the iron workers' international union, who was sentenced to seven years; Olaf A. Tveitmoe, the Pacific coast labor leader; Herbert S. Hockin, John T. Butler and the others who had received sentences varying from six years to one year and one day stepped from the special train which brought them from Indianapolis they were taken in charge by the prison authorities, and began in the federal penitentiary here punishments for their connection with crimes for which the McNamara brothers, confessed dynamiters, are serving terms in the state penitentiary at San Quentin, Cal.

Rushed from the scene of the historic trial at Indianapolis in a special train, which was barricaded and under guard, the prisoners were taken by rail directly into the prison grounds. Their first view of the interior was from the windows of the train.

Haircut and Uniform.

Within an hour after the arrival, each prisoner had been subjected to a haircut and had been garbed in the prison uniform. Most of the new prisoners are iron workers, and it is understood the warden is to put them on construction of buildings.

Tveitmoe, who is secretary of the California building trades council, is the only one of the convicted men not affiliated with the iron workers' union, and it is expected he will be given clerical work. Ryan, president of the iron workers' union, may be given similar work because of his age and his apparent collapsed condition.

It was a memorable trip which brought the prisoners over the 570 miles from Indianapolis. United States Marshal Schmidt, in charge of the prisoners, decided not to reach Leavenworth before daylight, so that almost twenty hours were passed in the train.

Train Closely Guarded.

The train was guarded at windows and doors as a rolling adjunct of the penitentiary, all curtains being drawn and no one being permitted to give out at the railway stations any word as to the happenings within. The trip across Indiana, Illinois, Missouri and into Kansas was to have been kept secret, but at every station crowds greeted the train as "the dynamiters' special," and cheers and singing at midnight showed the disposition of the prisoners toward a New Year, which for them was to begin with imprisonment. While passing Jefferson City, Mo., Marshal Schmidt passed around coffee, which was drank from tin cups. Each prisoner was permitted at that time to write out New Year's messages to members of their families.

Beyond that outburst of cheers, it was a long monotonous ride for the convicted men, each of whom was required to sit throughout the night face to face with an armed guard.

Higgins Collapses.

Frank J. Higgins of Boston, former New England organizer for the iron workers' union, became unconscious on the train and was placed in a physician's care. He is sentenced to serve two years.

When the prisoners were registered it was found that Ryan, aged fifty-eight years, was the oldest, and Fred Sherman, aged twenty-eight, is the youngest. Ryan is the only prisoner sentenced to a term as long as seven years, while Sherman is sentenced to two years.

Charles Wachtmeister of Detroit, with eight children, has the largest family. He is sentenced to two years.

For more than an hour there was enacted a scene in the office of Deputy Warden Mackey, where one by one the prisoners were relieved of their pocket possessions. These were little trinkets, matches, pocketbooks, pipes, handkerchiefs and photographs of wives, mothers and other relatives.

Merritt McPhea of Bowman and Will Connelly of Ypsilanti, Mich., were killed in the hotel fire. Connelly's brother, Tom, tried to save him and was seriously injured.

CRAIG AND RAGSDALE ADMITTED TO BAIL

On Advice of Prosecutor, but Woman's Club Will Push Case.

Indianapolis, Jan. 2.—Dr. William Craig, veterinarian, and Alonzo M. Ragsdale, undertaker, indicted for the murder of Dr. Helen Knabe, were released under heavy bonds, an unusual procedure in a first degree murder charge, because Prosecutor Baker told the court he knew what the evidence was and urged their admission to bail.

While the prosecuting authorities are thus disposed to favor the indicted pair, the club women of the city, who paid for the investigation that turned up damaging evidence, are determined to press the case against Dr. Craig and Ragsdale.

The sensation their arrest caused fully equaled the popular sensation created Oct. 24, 1911, by the finding of Dr. Knabe's nude body in her apartments, her head nearly severed from a gaping wound in the neck, made by a surgeon's knife.

FAIL TO GET ROCKEFELLER

House May Be Asked to Issue Attachment for Oil Magnate.

New York, Jan. 2.—After an all-night watch by forty-eight deputy sergeant-at-arms at the Tarrytown and Fifth avenue homes of William Rockefeller, it was declared that a federal report would be made to congress that Mr. Rockefeller was deliberately evading the process servers who seek to subpoena him before the Pujo committee at Washington, which is investigating the "money trust."

It is forty-four days since the subpoena for Mr. Rockefeller was issued.

Charles F. Riddell, sergeant-at arms of the house of representatives, said that as soon as he could get into communication with Chairman Pujo he would submit evidence that Mr. Rockefeller was deliberately evading service. If the house were convinced by the evidence it would be within its power to issue an attachment, enabling Sergeant-at-Arms Riddell to break into the Rockefeller home to find him.

EIGHT MEN KILLED IN WRECK

Train Goes Through Bridge Near Huntington, W. Va.

Huntington, W. Va., Jan. 2.—Eight men were killed and fifteen injured when a freight train on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad went through a bridge over the Guayandotte river, three miles from here.

The known dead: Engineer E. S. Webber, Emmett Wood, Charles Maddy, John O'Connor.

A crew of thirty or more iron workers were employed in repairing the bridge when the freight train appeared on the main track. Some of them believing the structure to have been weakened, left their posts, but others laughed at danger and were carried down with the wreckage when the bridge collapsed under the weight of the train.

New York, Jan. 2.—Hugo Reisinger, chairman of the visiting committee of the Germanic museum at Harvard university, and who was honorary commissioner to Europe of the St. Louis exposition, was notified that he had been appointed a privy councillor by the prince regent of Bavaria.

LUTHER M'CARTY DEFEATS PALZER

Nebraska Man Conquers Iowan in Eighteen Rounds.

LANDED BLOWS AT WILL.

Man Who Conquered Jim Flynn Three Weeks Ago Clinches Title to White Heavyweight Championship—Loser Game Under Punishment.

Los Angeles, Jan. 2.—Luther McCarty, the Nebraska cowboy, shattered the heavyweight championship ambition of Al Palzer, the Iowa giant, at the Vernon arena. For nearly eighteen rounds he used the huge frame of the Iowan as a punching box.

When the middle of the eighteenth round found Palzer staggering blindly about under a volley of lefts to his battered face and when Referee Charles Eyton walked between them and hoisted the right hand of the smiling cowboy pugilist, the decision was received with cheers.

McCarty's victory, following his decisive defeat three weeks ago of Jim Flynn, places him at the top of white heavyweights.

McCarty has announced and reiterated the statement that he would never fight a negro.

Palzer, in spite of his superior height, weight and reach, was no match for the cool-headed, agile youngster. He literally stumbled through the fight, assimilating awful punishment, and his rushes were wholly ineffective. He scarcely landed a clean blow throughout the fight.

Palzer began the fight with an aggressiveness that indicated a desire to finish his man in short order, but McCarty had little difficulty in eluding him.

Only once Palzer appeared to have an advantage. In one of the early rounds McCarty slipped to the mat. Palzer rushed in, launching a right uppercut to catch the rising man, but McCarty ducked out of danger.

Nebraskan Clever Fighter.

McCarty fought cleverly throughout, taking his time and beating down his man systematically. He seldom wasted a blow and hit with deadly precision. Palzer had practically no defense against the Nebraskan's whiplike left, delivered straight from the shoulder, and seldom was he able to block the right swing or uppercut, which invariably followed a series of straight lefts.

McCarty landed at will and with an accuracy that became monotonous.

Palzer's eyes were kept almost continually on his manager, the veteran Tom O'Rourke, who shouted instructions to him through a megaphone. He appeared to have no initiative whatever. O'Rourke's instructions were as audible to McCarty as to Palzer and every move of the Iowan was anticipated by his foe.

Palzer's face was badly disfigured and he showed the effects of his beating even more than did McCarty's last victim, the veteran Flynn.

In the eighteenth round Palzer walked unsteadily to the center of the ring and literally fell into a left hook that dazed him. He clung to McCarty's shoulders and when they separated, McCarty shot two lefts to the jaw. McCarty, apparently unwilling to administer the finishing punch, backed away and the referee stopped the fight.

McCarty's only mark was a slight cut under the right eye.

Ferns Gets Decision Over Brewer.

Kansas City, Jan. 2.—Clarence ("Wildcat") Ferns of Kansas City, claimant of the welterweight championship of the world, was awarded the decision over Harry Brewer of Kansas City after ten rounds of furious fighting here.

Kilbane Beats Kirk.

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion of the world, rendered Ollie Kirk helpless in less than two rounds, and Referee Harry Sharp stopped the fight, giving the decision to Kilbane.

SULZER PLEDGES REFORMS

New Governor of New York Walks to Inauguration.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 2.—William Sulzer was inaugurated forty-second governor of New York. He cut out all the usual display. His only concession was an address from the capitol steps to thousands who could not get into the big building.

With the declaration that he was free from ulterior influences and determined to serve the will of the people, Governor Sulzer practically served notice on Tammany Hall that he is not its figurehead.

Soon after 11 o'clock, Governor elect Sulzer and Governor Dix left the executive mansion with their staffs and walked to the capitol.

The marching suffragettes, headed by "General" Rosalie Jones, clapped their hands enthusiastically, and shouted "Hurrah for our governor."

Governor Sulzer's address pledged him to carry out reforms demanded by the people.

Agreement Made for Loan.

Peking, Jan. 2.—A preliminary agreement was arranged settling the details of the proposed six-power loan of $125,000,000 to China.

GOVERNMENT HAS BALANCE

First Half of Fiscal Year Shows Two Million Surplus.

REVENUE RECEIPTS INCREASE.

Working Balance of Treasury, Which Is Actual Cash in Uncle Sam's Pocketbook, Amounts to Eighty-eight Million Dollars.

Washington, Jan. 1.—Uncle Sam closed his accounts for the year 1912 with plenty of money in his pockets and a balance sheet of receipts and expenditures that bespoke the prosperity of the nation.

For the first half of the current fiscal year ending yesterday disbursements exceeded receipts by between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000, according to estimates of treasury officiales. The deficit a year ago was over $21,397,000.

This improvement over last year is due to the remarkable increase in customs and internal revenue receipts during the last six months. Receipts from all sources from July to December were $353,000,000, or more than $23,000,000 greater than during the corresponding period of 1911.

The aggregrate expenditures for the six months were about $356,000,000. This was nearly $5,000,000 greater than the same period last year, the increase being due mainly to large expenditures for the army and the increased pension payments as a result of the pension legislation of the last congress.

The general fund of the government contained upwards of $140,000,000, while a year ago it held only $126,926,000. The working balance of the treasury, which is the actual cash in Uncle Sam's pocketbook, amounts to about $88,000,000. The year 1911 closed with a working balance of $71,475,000.

The treasury holds about $1,153,665,000 in gold. This includes $150,000,000 in the reserve fund, the greater part of the remainder being represented by gold certificates in circulation.

YEAR IN WALL STREET

New York Banks in Better Condition Than Any Time Since 1907.

New York, Jan. 1.—The year 1912 in the financial district was far from satisfactory. In the stock market lower prices and restricted business were the most adverse features. Of the various commodity markets the cotton exchange almost alone had an active and profitable year.

The dullness in the stock market found partial reflection in the operations of local banks and trust companies, but all these institutions are believed to be in better condition than at any time since the end of 1907, and many have added handsomely to their resources and surplus accounts.

STEEL TRUST BRANCHING OUT

Will Build Plant in Canada at Cost of $20,000,000.

New York, Jan. 1.—The United States Steel corporation is to extend the sphere of its manufacturing operations into Canada. In a statement Chairman Elbert H. Gary said:

"We have decided to establish a manufacturing plant at the site which we secured some years ago at Sandwich, Can., just opposite Detroit. In the comparatively near future we shall begin the construction of some blast furnaces and mills. We shall probably build a wire mill, rail mill, structural mill, bar mill and perhaps some other mills. I suppose the first cost will be in the neighborhood of $20,000,000."

President Reaches Washington.

Washington, Jan. 1.—President and Mrs. Taft accompanied by Colonel and Mrs. George W. Goethals and the party that accompanied the president to the canal zone reached Washington. President Taft had a number of appointments for the day at the White House offices. Colonel Goethals will remain in Washington for some time to consult with congressional committees.

Even Money on Palzer and McCarty.

Los Angeles, Jan. 1.—Al Palzer of Ossian, Ia., and Luther McCarty of Springfield, Mo., will meet in a twenty-round bout at the Vernon arena today and the victor will be proclaimed heavyweight champion pugilist of the world, on the assumption that Jack Johnson has been eliminated from the fighting game. Despite the efforts to make Palzer a favorite in the betting, even money continues to prevail.

DICKINSON IS DEPOSED

M. J. Knelly Appointed General Manager of Orient Railroad.

SUPT. MERTSCHEIMER RESIGNS

Disagreement Among Eleven Receivers in Charge of Company Brings About Shakeup—Dickinson Retains Place of Vice President.

Kansas City, Jan. 1.—Edward Dickinson has been deposed as general manager of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient railway and M. J. Knelly, formerly a division superintendent for the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad, named in his place, according to an announcement from the railway headquarters here. The resignation of Frederick Mertscheimer as superintendent of motive power also was announced.

Disagreement among the various receivers who have had the railway company in charge for several months is said to have brought about the shakeup. Counting the receivers appointed for the subsidiary companies and those named in different states, eleven receivers have charge of the Orient company's affairs. There are three for Kansas and Oklahoma, two for Texas, two for Mexico, one each for the Kansas City Outer Belt Railway company and the Townsite company, two for the International and Union Construction company, the last named concerns being subsidiaries of the Orient.

It was stated that Mr. Dickinson retains the place of vice president, but has merely a "thinking part" in the affairs of the road.

CARDUI WORKED LIKE A CHARM

After Operation Failed to Help, Cardui Worked Like a Charm.

Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from this place, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet. The doctor said I would never be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer.

I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die.

At last I tried Cardui, and began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains.

Cardui worked like a charm."

There must be merit in this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women—Cardui—for it has been in successful use for more than 50 years, for the treatment of womanly weakness and disease.

Please try it, for your troubles.

THREE CHILDREN BURNED IN HOME

Mother Was Shopping and Father Found Doors Locked.

BUCKET BRIGADE POWERLESS.

Gray Summit, Mo., Jan. 2.—The three children of Mr. and Mrs. George Meyer burned to death in their home here. The children, whose ages were three years, two years and nine months, were alone in the house. Mrs. Meyer was shopping.

The father was working in a sand mill thirty feet from the house, but when he and other workmen, attracted by smoke, reached the house, they found the doors locked. The house was enveloped in flames before they could enter. A bucket brigade was powerless to check the flames. The oldest and youngest children were girls.

Gray Summit is in Franklin county, the first county west of St. Louis.

NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

Water Wagon Jolts Off All but Four in Each 100.

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—Only four of every 100 persons who have run up the "Never Again" sign will keep it floating till next New Year's.

Such is the opinion of St. Louis liquor venders in a canvass downtown.

"It's the same crowd that swears off year after year," said Frank J. Moore. "We all look for business to drop, perhaps more than 50 per cent, the day or two after New Year's. Then the tumbles off the water wagon begin and the receipts gain daily until Jan. 15, when they are back where they were before.

"Beer drinkers hardly ever swear off drinking, but if they do they are more likely to keep their resolution than the 'booze fighters.'"

"If 100 men took a vow never to take another drink, I would not bank on more than five of them being able to say honestly that they had kept it a year hence," said Jacob Rose. "Seventy-five per cent of them would fall off the wagon the first week."

CANDY IS NOT POISONED

Force of St. Louis City Chemist's Office Had a Scare.

St. Louis, Jan. 2.—For twenty-four hours the entire force of the city chemist's office here suffered in fear they had been poisoned. All were given antidotes and physicians constantly were nearby. The comedy, or near tragedy, was revealed by the report of the chemist. Daudt, that there was no poison in a huge box of candy sent by Claude Lancaster of Newport Ky., to his divorced wife, Lilly Williams.

The candy was taken to the chemist's office by the police after Cora Pears, Mrs. Williams' sister, became very ill immediately after eating some of the candy. Stenographers and clerks believed it was a belated Christmas gift and ate most of the sweets. Finally Daudt entered.

"Hum," he said, "anyone who ate that much candy ought to die whether it was poisoned or not," as he opened the box.

The effect was startling. It required twenty hours to show the candy was pure.

OUST A MISSOURI JURIST

Supreme Court Decides Against Buchanan County Circuit Judge.

Jefferson City, Jan. 2.—Judge W. K. Amick of the Buchanan county circuit court was ousted from office through an opinion filed in the supreme court in banc by Judge Woodson and concurred in by the other judges. Judge Amick was apointed to succeed Judge Easton, who resigned with more than four years of his term unexpired. He contended his appointment carried him in office until the expiration of the time for which Judge Easton was elected. Meantime, Charles F. Mayor, a Democrat, was elected last November. Judge Amick refused to surrender the office and Mayor sought to oust him.

FORTY YEARS FOR SLAYER

Long Sentence for Missouri Blacksmith Who Killed Rival.

Springfield, Mo., Jan. 1.—Forty years in the penitentiary was the sentence given at Forsythe to Edward Dickens, who murdered Fred Dorst at Branson last September. The jury in the case was out all night. Dickens and his victim were rival blacksmiths and the murder was the result of a quarrel over their respective achievements at their trade.

Girl Baby Arrives With New Year.

Kansas City, Jan. 2.—Kansas City's first New Year's baby is Madeline Bridges. She arrived at the home of John L. Bridges, a creamery man, just as the first blasts of the whistles sounded from the packing houses and with the first boom of the cannon of battery B. As her tiny voice mingled with the welcoming din, the hands of the clock pointed to 12:01.

Boy Is Killed for a Rabbit.

Overly, N. D., Jan. 2.—Elmer Johnson, aged eighteen, thought the top of Henry Schoonover's head was a rabbit. The bullet from Johnson's gun struck Schoonover, aged twelve, in the temple, killing him instantly.
